[REDACTED]
Member of the Order of the Arrow

On September 17, 1980, M [REDACTED] received a phone call from [REDACTED] (a widow with two sons in [REDACTED]) she read him a letter that her son [REDACTED] asked me to follow up on this situation. (the letter is attached)

I called [REDACTED] that afternoon and asked if I could see the letter Friday morning. She said her other son, [REDACTED] would get a copy of the letter for our records. On Friday, September 19th, 1980, I met with [REDACTED] the older [REDACTED] he filled me in on more facts.

It seems [REDACTED] had been at the Order of the Arrow Ordeal the weekend before, [REDACTED] deal of the time. [REDACTED] showed him a pistol (not loaded, but he had ammo), suggested that [REDACTED] take a shower with him. Fortunately, a leader came in and this made it easier for [REDACTED] leave. [REDACTED] a blood [REDACTED] the exact procedure was not known, [REDACTED] put him off. [REDACTED] became playful and swung [REDACTED] round by the crotch [REDACTED] before but [REDACTED] never made any advances towards him.

On Saturday, September 20th, I spoke [REDACTED] the Scoutmaster of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was registered as the Assistant Scoutmaster in their troop. I set a time to go with [REDACTED] This was Tuesday, September 23, 1980, at [REDACTED] house. We told him of the letters and the conversations with [REDACTED] poke of the pistol in camp, and his peculiar actions and the appearances it made. We suggested he resign from [REDACTED] and stay away from all Scouting units and activities. Before we left, [REDACTED] asked David if he understood what was said, he answered in the affirmative.
